EX-SECRETARY EVARTS BLIND.

Ex-Secretary of State William M. Evarts was 80 years old last Sunday week, and for the first time in years his massive old brick house at Fourteenth street and Second avenue, New York, was noisy with the prattle of his grandchildren, who had assembled in his honor.

Upstairs sat the old gentleman smilingly happy to have them about him. There were two or three very young babies among them, but the venerable lawyer and statesman has never seen their faces. The eyes which had looked on so many historic scenes and assemblages are sightless.

For two years he has not visited the law offices of Evarts, Choate & Sherman, of which he is the nominal head. Within the past year Mr. Evarts has displayed little interest in the momentous events of the day, and the once splendid intellect is going gently to sleep.

Not many persons living in the neighborhood knew that the occupant of the house was one of the most-talked-of men in the country, the only lawyer who ever got a single fee of $500,000; the man who helped to make Rufus B. Hayes President of the United States, who defended President Johnson on impeachment charges, who defeated Henry Ward Beecher in the Tilton scandal, who represented the United States in arranging the Alabama claims, who delivered the wonderful oration at the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia, in 1876, who was Secretary of State under Hayes, and United States Senator from New York.

BLOWN 1,300 MILES TO SEA.—The little British fishing schooner Spina-way sailed from Cadiz for St. John, Newfoundland, seventy-five days ago. About the middle of January, when she was within three miles of the Newfoundland coast, she got caught in the ice, and a fierce storm of sleet and snow made a crystal ship of her over eight. Her spars, halliards, shrouds and sheets were thrice their usual size with ice, and her decks were plated with a foot or more of it. Under her frosty burden she sank nearly two feet below her ballast water line. A north-west gale sprang up and drove her far out to sea again. Nearly all her sails were carried away in the blast. Her skipper, Capt. Richards, had a vague idea of his position on February 4 when he sighted the Danish oil-carrying steamship Christine, which arrived at New York yesterday from Shields. The schooner's provisions had given out, and she was flying a distress signal. Capt. Larson, of the Christine, lowered a boat, containing provisions, oil, tobacco, medicine, and a patent log, which were taken aboard the schooner, some of whose crew were in bad shape. Capt. Richards ascertained that he was about 300 miles northeast of the Azores, and nearly 1,300 miles from St. Johns. He said he thought he would make for the nearest port. He was within 1,000 miles of Cadiz, whence he had sailed sixty-five days before. He had covered in all about 3,000 miles.

The Greatest Discovery Yet.
W. M. Repine, editor Taskila, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, and Colds, Whooping Coughs, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at E. L. Allen's Drug Store.

Mr. Ward L. Smith, of Fredericks-town, Mo., was troubled with chronic diarrhea for over thirty years. He had been fully satisfied that it was only a question of a short time until he would have to give up. He had been treated by some of the best physicians in Europe and America but got no permanent relief. One day he picked up an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. He got a bottle of it, the first dose helped him and its continued use cured him. For sale by J. H. Janney, Druggist, 701 King street.

A thrill of terror is experienced when a brassy cough of croup sounds through the house at night. But the terror soon changes to relief after One Minute Cough Cure has been administered. Safe and harmless for children. Charles G. Lennon.

"BIOCOLIN" It substitutes Cold Cream and Zinc Ointment; it prevents the hands, lips and face from chapping and becoming red; it renders the skin soft, white and smooth; it is America's very best cosmetic; delicately perfumed. Price 10c. 25c. 40c. at WARFIELD & HALLS, Corner of Prince and Fairfax streets.

CASTLE SOAP and Turkish Bath Soap. This soap is made from pure Olive Oil pressed from prime fresh olives, retaining the natural color of the fruit. Price 10c. at E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS.

COCAINE-CURSED FAMILY.—Dr. Jno. Develi died on Sunday afternoon at a sanitarium in New Albany, Ky., where he had been taken in the hope that he could be cured of the cocaine habit. Two weeks ago he and his daughter were found unconscious in one room of a miserable tenement without food, fire or bed clothes. Both were far gone, but they were taken to the city hospital and responded enough to treatment to justify hopes of complete recovery. The daughter, though a skeleton, and with a body covered with sores, is only 26 years old and will get well, but Develi's vitality was so exhausted that he had a fatal relapse on Sunday.

Fifteen years ago he was a wealthy physician, living in fine style and greatly respected. He contracted the cocaine habit and taught it to his daughter and wife, and the family sank into poverty and degradation. For years they subsisted on charity. Develi took great quantities of the drug and resisted every attempt of brother physicians to reclaim him.
